Wilmington Chamber Internet Radio Show Launches

Wilmington, NC—Members of the business community and general public now have a new way to learn about topical business issues, the Wilmington Chamber's work, and area businesses. The Chamber will host the "Voice of Business" show on Business RadioX once a month (every second Thursday at 3:00 pm).

The April show focuses on the crime rate as it relates to economic development, and what the Chamber is doing to help reduce crime. Guests include Chamber Board Chair Rickey Godwin, Mayor Bill Saffo, and Jana Jones Hall, executive director of the Blue Ribbon Commission on Gang Violence. Hear the show live or listen at your convenience at <http://wilmington.businessradiox.com/>.
