

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

October 23, 2013

First South Bank to Hold Grand Opening and Ribbon Cutting on October 24

The Wilmington Chamber of Commerce is pleased to announce the grand opening of First South Bank's banking office in Wilmington, North Carolina, located at 1612 Military Cutoff Road. A ribbon cutting ceremony will be held at 3:00 pm on Thursday October 24th and a grand opening ceremony at 5:00 pm.

The new full service banking office officially opened for business in late June 2013, and replaces First South Bank's limited service branch that opened in early 2007. The facilities offer the added convenience of an ATM, drive thru windows, safe deposit boxes and a commercial night depository.

First South Bank has been serving the communities of eastern North Carolina since 1902 and it currently operates 26 branches in 18 communities.

Please RSVP attendance to 910-256-1264.

#