Women’s Professional Development Luncheon to Address “Work-Life Balance”

Wilmington, NC—We all struggle with work-life balance as we juggle time with our families, business commitments, involvement in our community and schools, vacations, health issues, and more. On Wednesday, August 23, area women can learn tips for creating balance from a panel of four Wilmington professionals from entrepreneurial, corporate, non-profit, and spiritual backgrounds.

Panelists include: Louise Hicks (Communities In Schools); Tammy Orr (GE Hitachi Nuclear Energy); Rabbi Julie Kozlow (B'Nai Israel Synagogue); and Melissa Phillippi (Performance Culture). The moderator will be Ruth Smith (New Hanover County).

The Women’s Professional Development Luncheon will take place at the Coast Line Conference & Events Center (102 Nutt Street), and will include a mini business expo. Registration and booths open at 10:00 am. Lunch by Catering Thyme begins at 11:40, and the panel discussion at 12:10.

Sponsors for the event include: Presenting Sponsor—Duke Energy; Platinum Sponsors—Corning, GE Wilmington and Carolina Small Business Development Fund; and Silver Sponsors—Alliance Credit Union; Catering Thyme; CloudWyze; The Lanier Property Group, Inc.; RSM US LLP; Pathfinder Wealth Consulting; Premier Staffing Solutions.

Media are welcome to attend. RSVP to Scott Czechlewski at czechlewski@wilmingtonchamber.org.

About the Wilmington Chamber of Commerce

The Wilmington Chamber of Commerce is the largest membership-based business association in Southeastern North Carolina. The Chamber’s mission is to ensure economic prosperity throughout our region. This is accomplished by: creating a diverse, inclusive organization that serves as a strong voice for businesses in the Greater Wilmington area; offering unique membership benefits, services and education; and challenging government officials to address long term community and business interests.
